

Fall 2016 Newsletter

Hello fellow Deaf Albertans,

The whirlwind of Summer is now over. We have business to get back to now that its September and the start of another fiscal year. We have several things coming down the pipe with these announcements.

First off we are announcing we are now doing letters to the Community 3 times a year with them begin sent out to ACSD members in the September, January and April months. The letters to the Community along with update event notices, general, and contact information, is found on our website www.acsd.ca

We are excited to have another Signing Naturally Unit 1-6 workshop headed by Mari Klassen of BC who has M.A. in ASL Linguistics. ACSD is proud to host her at our workshop at the cafeteria in the Alberta School for the Deaf on September 9th – 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and 10th – 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This workshop is offered as professional development for the community's Deaf ASL Instructors. Registration deadline is on September 7th and the fee is $175.00. Please contact our Administrative Assistant if you are interested in taking the workshop.

Get your tickets! We are featuring a workshop on “101 Activities for Teaching ASL” written and brought to you by a famous local Albertan! Angela Stratiy will be talking about her book on October 1, 2016 at the Alberta School for the Deaf from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. If you are interested, please contact our office administrator and the fee for workshop is $50.00 payable to the Alberta Cultural Society of the Deaf. Additionally, if you wish order her products, contact Angela at astratiy@telus.net

Come check out this unique workshop, register early !!

Get your popcorn ! We are showing another movie in Edmonton on November 4th. “Deaf Club” by Rustic Lantern, a division of Deaf Inc. A well made documentary on the benefits and challenges of community Deaf Clubs. A fascinating watch for anyone interested in Deaf culture! Invite your friends to come watch! The proceeds from the film will be going toward helping the newly formed Deaf Youth Canada organization. We are proud to support our next generation of Deaf and Hard of Hearing leaders!

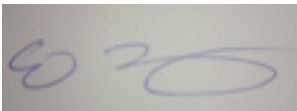

One of our mandates is to help promote locate Deaf artists. We post “Featured Artists” on our website and offer our community Art space as a venue for showcasing and selling their works of art. From paintings to jewelry an assortment of items are available for the public to buy a truly local one of a kind item. We accept debit and credit purchases as well as cash.

Our next Board of Directors meeting will be on October 15th, 2016 at the Edmonton Association of the Deaf Community Centre at 10:00 a.m. Community observers are welcome to come watch.

We are proud to feature the Deaf Culture Centre's DefT tea brew blend lines in our office. Come to ask questions about the tea and walk home with a nice tin of several varieties at $15.00 each. 100% of proceeds from tea sales goes back to the Deaf Culture Centre in Toronto in support of their business enterprise. CCSD will be having their Annual General Meeting on November 12th, 2016. Keep posted for news from our partner organization.

If you are interested in more information or would like to enquire about volunteer opportunities, our great Administrative Assistant, Victoria Meusel would be happy to direct you at acsdooffice@shawcable.com or visit our website at <http://www.acsd.ca>
